Dear Sir /Madam

Major Partnership with US Workplace Solutions Provider

TZ Limited (“TZ” and the “Company”) is pleased to announce that to support its plans to accelerate the growth and market adoption of its products in the USA, its wholly owned US subsidiary, Telezygology, Inc. has entered into a non-exclusive reseller agreement with a major provider of workplace solutions (the “US Partner”) for the distribution and sale of the Company’s full range of smart locker solutions throughout North and South America. Our US Partner is a major player across multiple verticals in the USA and on the list of Fortune 500 world’s largest corporations and in the Forbes 2000 list of leading companies.

Under the agreement, TZ will provide turn-key Smart Locker Systems for accountable mail management, day lockers, inventory management and other locker based solutions for promotion to the corporate, educational and government sectors. TZ is responsible for the supply, installation, commissioning and on-going hardware and software maintenance of the Lockers, the integrated smart device technology and electronics and TZ’s end-user client and server software application licences.

“Establishing this strategic partner agreement with a market leader underpins our growth plans for the Americas and is a major enabler to expanding our PAD sales penetration and market share”, stated Kenneth Ting, Executive Director of TZ Limited. “We are pleased to be closely aligned and integrated with a company whose key objective is to transform the way companies work”.

Our US Partner has asked that we maintain confidentiality until the official product launch when a formal press release will be made.
